Unbounded Enthusiasm of the People.

The Grant and Colfax Torchlight Procession, which was arranged for last evening, as a prelude to the grand Mass Convention of to-day, was one of the grandest night demonstrations ever witnessed in this city. For ten days previously the most active preparations had been in progress, and were continued vigorously to the end, in the face of the most discouraging and threatening condition of the weather.

THE DAYS.

[illegible]

were uniformed with blue capes and bronze caps, and were supplied with torches.

They carried a banner on which was "Sixteenth Ward Tanner Club." "Hurrah for Grant and the Boys in Blue." "Devil take Seymour and all his crew."

There was also a four horse wagon, gaily decorated with evergreens, flags, Chinese lanterns, &c., containing thirty-six young ladies in costume to represent the different States. Along the route they sang patriotic songs.

Another wagon contained the veterans of the Sixteenth ward, and still another contained a delegation of the Tanner Club to make a display of the fireworks. Each wagon was decorated and illuminated, and on the sides of the wagon containing the veterans was, "Veterans of the Sixteenth ward—old and decrepit men."

Fifteenth and Seventeenth Wards.

These two wards were consolidated. W. H. Scott commanded the Fifteenth, and the Seventeenth was under charge of Captain John Hoerr. They numbered seventy-five men, and were uniformed with red caps and capes, and carried torches.

The Lawrenceville Glee Club followed in a wagon, handsomely decorated. There were several beautiful wreaths carried by the members of this club.

The Lawrenceville Hose Company, preceded by axmen followed. They made an elegant display. On the sides of the wagon, containing the glee club, was: "Lawrenceville Glee Club." "says Andy Batt, "I am your man, I teach astrology on a new plan, I hammer it in with a ratan, when I go to school in the morning."

The other mottoes carried by this club were as follows: "Seventeenth Ward Tanner Club." "What the great Washington gave, God sent Grant to save." "We are the True Representatives of Labor Reform, and cannot be Gulled by the Rebel Democracy. We vote for Grant, Colfax and the whole Republican Ticket." "We do a Stane—n Business for Grant." "Seventeenth Ward Good for 125 Majority." "The Democratic Platform is a Whited Sepulchre, Full of Dead Men's Bones." "We send our Ballots as we sent our bullets."

Eighteenth Ward.

Julius Livingston, Commander. David Kirk and John McMasters, Assistants. David Jones superintendent of fire works. The club was made up chiefly of oil men in wagons. They carried a banner with the following inscriptions: "Eighteenth Ward 'Oil' Right." "Grant and Colfax." "No Repudiation—Honesty is the Best Policy." "Will give 180 per cent. over Geary's Majority."

A. K. R. C.

In a buggy were seated two members of a club once known to exist under the above title in Lawrenceville. They were dressed to represent clowns, and created considerable merriment along the route.

Nineteenth and Twentieth Wards.

Under command of P. D. Perchment, Captain Lawson commanding the marching corps, eighty-four in number, uniformed with bronze capes and red hats. They carried a banner on which was "Union, Peace and Prosperity." "We will Preserve the Union's Credit." The delegation was preceded by a martial band. There was also a wagon containing a squad detailed to dispose of the fireworks.

Twenty-first Ward.

A two horse wagon gaily decorated with Chinese lanterns, etc. On either side of the wagon was a picture of Grant enclosed in a wreathe. The club numbered eighty, and was under command of Captain Curtis S. Haven. They wore bronze capes and caps, with red stripes around them. They also carried a banner, on two ends of which were "Twenty-first Ward." On the others were, "By our loyalty to the flag, we claim the right to take our carpet-bags where we please." There was a picture of a carpet-bag with the "Fourteenth Amendment" written on it. They also carried the eagle "Phil. Sheridan," and in his mouth was a wreath, in the center of which was "Peace." They were preceded by a martial band, and carried several beautiful wreathes.

SIXTH GRAND DIVISION.

Gen. A. L. PEARSON commanding.

AIDS:

Thomas Reese,	Ed. Brush,
Wm. E. Ford,	Ralph Richardson,
Sam. W. Reynolds,	Capt. B. Galbraith,
Ed. T. Whitmore,	John F. Hunter,
H. A. Collier,	Wm. H. McCreary,
Dr. J. G. McCandless,	Willis W. Powers,
Wm. Hosack,	Col. J. D. Owens,
E. S. Morrow,	Dr. A. M. Barr,
Maj. Sam'l Kilgore,	John G. Brown.

The division was composed of Allegheny County Tanners' Clubs, and clubs from the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh and Twelfth Wards. The division formed on Wood street, right resting on Water.

The Chief Marshal, General Pearson, wore a white sash, while the aids were distinguished by pink sashes and regulation caps.

Toerge's famous brass band acted as the division band, which was composed of twenty-two pieces.

The division received marching orders at fifteen minutes after nine o'clock, in the following order:

Allegheny County Tanners' Club.

This organization was composed of Companies A, B and C, and was commanded by Captains J. S. Patterson and Ed. D. Brush. They turned out four hundred and twenty-five men. They carried two beautiful transparencies, which bore the following inscriptions: "Allegheny County Tanners' Club," "Grant and Colfax," "Union and Liberty," "The Union Undivided and Indivisible." The clubs marched with precision, and were admired along the whole route.

First Ward Grant Club.

This club numbered nearly one hundred men, uniformed in bronze capes and caps, and were commanded by Captain Wm. H. Perkins. They carried three transparencies [illegible] "First Ward Grant and Colfax Club." "The Democracy with all their Blair-ing cannot make the People See-mour." "All loyal people to the Rescue." "The Union claims the loyal people of the Nation as her Children." [illegible]

Second Ward Tanners' Club.

This club appeared in line, and attracted considerable attention as being the oldest club in the country. This club was commanded by Capt. Wm. B. Cook, and numbered one hundred and thirty-five men. They were uniformed in gilt capes and caps, trimmed with blue, and wore leggins. Their transparencies had the following inscriptions: "Second Ward Grant and Colfax Club." "Pioneer Grant Club of the United States. Organized October 28, 1867." "Colfax will not Murder our President." "We have no Orphan Asylum Incendiaries." "We have had enough of Mr. Veto." "Second Ward gives two hundred and fifty majority for Grant." The Second Ward Battery was commanded by Capt. John Floyd. The battery consisted of one brass piece, and a full gun squad, drawn by six horses.

Third and Fifth Ward Grant Clubs.

These clubs numbered one hundred uniformed men, and were commanded by Capt. John T. Brown. A large wagon containing old veterans and crippled soldiers, drawn by six horses, preceded the club. The banner bore the following mottoes: "Unto US Grant Peace." "The way to preserve peace is to vote for Grant." "William Penn was a carpet-bagger." "Loyalty should govern what loyalty has preserved." "Rebels will vote for Seymour and Blair, but loyal men will vote for Grant and Colfax." "Third Ward good for 150 majority for Grant." A transparency in German bore the following mottoes: "German honor harmonizes badly with repudiation." "No North, no South—the United States, firm and lofty as our mountains." "The first step to peace was war; Grant led us on to victory—let us elect him as our next President, and he will give us a lasting peace." "Peace nourishes, war demolishes."

Fourth Ward Grant Club.

This club came into line with one hundred and fifty men, under the command of Captain Wm. McClure. Uniforms—navy caps and steel colored capes. Transparencies—"Fourth Ward Grant and Colfax Club." "Who killed Barr's Rooster." [Rooster upside down.] "I, says Maine, and I'll do it again in November." "Lift the weight from the shoulders of all men, and give them an equal chance."—A. Lincoln. On the reverse side was a picture of Blair with a glass of grog in his hand and a he goat threatening his rear, with the following words "Frank Blair will succeed, its taking horn."

Sixth Ward Tanner Clubs.

The display of the clubs of this ward was creditable. These organizations composed a battalion, under the marshalship of Captain Foster Alward. The first company, numbering one hundred and twenty-five men, fully equipped, was commanded by Captain E. S. Wright, and the other, numbering one hundred and twenty-five men, by Captain Samuel A. Chambers. A wagon, drawn by four bay horses, contained wounded soldiers. The transparency was a caricature on Seymour, with Grant in the White House chair and the former on discovering this fact exclaims: "I see-mour than I expected!" "Sixth Ward Tanner Clubs." A drum corps accompanied the clubs.

Seventh and Eighth Wards Grant Club.

These Clubs came next and numbered two hundred and sixty men, Capt. Saml. Kilgore commanding. The "Marching Phalanx" was preceded by one wagon with four gray horses, containing disabled soldiers and fire-works. Banner—"Boys in Blue of the Seventh and Eighth Wards." "Grant, we sustained him in the field, we will not desert him now." Second wagon, four black horses—transparency—a fine portrait of Grant, with mottoes: "Old Sixth ward good for 500 majority for Grant and Colfax too." "Have you heard the news from Vermont, Maine, New Mexico and Colorado." "Let us have peace." Sam Heffick's popular Drum Corps furnished martial music for this club.

Ninth and Tenth Wards Tanner Clubs.

Capt. James Porter commanded these Clubs, who turned out two hundred. They wore bronze capes and caps. A wagon, drawn by six mules, contained a number of wounded soldiers, and the fireworks preceded the clubs, and an excellent band discoursed fine music. The banners bore the following mottoes: "We belong to the party that never furnished a traitor." "We will pay Grant the Justice we owe him." "The Bayardstown Grant and Colfax Club." "The Democracy gave Grant four year's Labor, we will give him four year's Rest." "Ninth and Tenth Wards Grant Clubs." "Elect Seymour and we will have gained what we lost in our cause."—Wade Hampton. An excellent drum corps furnished music for the club.

Twelfth Ward Tanner Club.

This Club numbered one hundred and fifty men, who were attired in bronze caps and capes and leggings, and were commanded by Captain William Clark. The following is the mottoes of one of the banners: "Twelfth Ward good for 300 majority for Grant;" "We will cast our ballots as we cast our bullets." A picture of a cannon and a pyramid of cannon balls completed the transparency.

ROUTE OF PROCESSION.

The Divisions moved, in the above order, over the following route:

Along Smithfield street to Third avenue, up Third avenue to Ross street, up Ross to Fifth avenue, to Pride, up Pride street to Colwell, along Colwell to Fulton, up Fulton to Wylie, down Wylie to Fifth avenue, down Fifth avenue to Liberty, along Liberty to O'Hara, along O'Hara to Penn, down Penn to St. Clair, along St. Clair and over Suspension Bridge to Federal street, Allegheny, up Federal to Lacock, along Lacock to Anderson, up Anderson to Cedar avenue, along Cedar avenue to North Common, along North Common to Irwin avenue, along Irwin avenue to Ohio street, where the procession dismissed.

The Newspaper Offices.

The newspaper offices on Fifth avenue were all brilliantly illuminated and gaily decorated, and during the time the procession was passing the employees kept up a fusilade of fireworks. The Gazette building was decorated with flags, evergreens and mottoes, the principal motto reading "Let loyalty govern what loyalty won." Chinese lanterns were hung profusely around the building, and altogether our contemporary made a fine display. The Chronicle strung a large number of lanterns across the avenue, forming an arch, with a handsome wreath for a Keystone, and the front of the building was well supplied with flags and lanterns. The Dispatch was also decorated with flags and lanterns, and looked well. The Post wore a sombre hue, the official vote from Maine having been received during the day.

The COMMERCIAL office made the most profuse display. The entire front of the building was covered with flags, stars, lanterns, bulletins and transparencies. The words "THE COMMERCIAL," surmounted by a large eagle, all formed of brilliant gas jets, lit up the avenue in front of the building as if it were daylight, and admiring thousands gazed at and loudly cheered the display. Among the many mottoes displayed were the following: "Loyalty shall Govern what Loyalty has Preserved"—Colfax. "The Stability of this Government and the purity of this nation depend solely on the cordial support and earnest loyalty of the people"—Grant. "Whatever the preservation of the Union cost it was worth the money, and we will honestly pay it, taxes or no taxes." "The Democratic bids for votes are—Greenbacks in the West; Gold in the East, and Blood in the South." "The Democratic party is the most miserable and corrupt party that ever existed"—Frank Blair in 1861. "The Republican party knows no Policy in Finance but Honesty." We have not space to enumerate all the mottoes displayed by the COMMERCIAL, or more fully describe its display.

On Smithfield street, the office of the Freiheits Freund was brilliantly illuminated and decorated with flags and lanterns.

The Streets Along the Route.

On Water street, from Wood to Smithfield streets, there was a display of bunting flags and lanterns on every house but three. Long before the procession commenced to move, on Smithfield street, in front of the Monongahela House, the street was so densely packed with people that it was almost impassible to even a foot passenger.

The Monongahela House presented a magnificent appearance, the proprietor, regardless of expenses, having decorated it as completely as money could make it. On Water street, beneath the balcony, there were two brilliant locomotive head-lights which illuminated the street from Wood to Grant, and the balcony was ornamented with fifty Chinese lanterns. The front on Smithfield over the portico had a large Keystone arch of gas jets, surmounted with the inscription "Grant and Colfax." Every window in the house contained a flag and Chinese lantern, numbering over four hundred. During the passing of the procession red fire, rockets and other fire-works were kept constantly in operation.

From the Monongahela House to Third street, both sides of Smithfield street, with the exception of some ten houses, were decorated with all kinds of patriotic emblems. We noticed particularly the Merchants' Hotel, where there were flags, Chinese lanterns, etc., in every window, and over the portico a large star of red, white and blue, with a portrait of Grant in the center, with the words "Let us have Peace." During the passing of the procession, balloons were sent up, and there was a grand display of fireworks. The crowd in front was immense and deafening huzzas were constantly sent up from the people for Grant and Colfax.

The banking house of Ira B. McVay on the corner of Fourth and Smithfield was brilliantly decorated with flags, as was also the case with most of the houses, not only on Smithfield street, where the procession did not pass, but also on all the side streets.

Third street to Ross, among the private dwellings, and there is nothing else on that part of the street, was a mass of illuminations, and every window was filled with ladies waiving handkerchiefs.

Ross street, old Pennsylvania avenue, Pride street, Colwell and Fulton streets, presented the same appearance, and on the sidewalks all along the route the crowd of spectators was immense, and in the houses where no flags were displayed the windows were filled with ladies and gentlemen waving handkerchiefs.

Wylie street, from its intersection with Fulton to Fifth avenue, was illuminated with Chinese lanterns, and hung with flags the entire length. There was only here and there a solitary building without a patriotic emblem, and in many of these the windows were crowded with ladies and gentlemen giving hearty welcomes to the passing procession.

The residence of Jared M. Brush, Esq., was most handsomely decorated, as were also those of A. M. Brown, Esq., Wm. Barnhill, Mrs. Roberts, and D. Reed, Esq. Nearly every store displayed the stars and stripes, and if room in these columns would allow, we should like to name the hundreds of citizens who put out their emblems of loyalty. Suffice it to say that from Wood street all along the route of procession to Fifth avenue and Smithfield street, nine-tenths of all the residences were in colors for Grant and Colfax. Most of the citizens also on the side streets intersecting the route of procession showed their colors, the red white and blue.

The Court House was handsomely illuminated in every window, and all along the eves of the roof with Chinese lanterns, and the grounds were filled with people assembled to see the procession. Nearly every house on Fifth avenue from Grant to Smithfield was illuminated.

On that part of the route, from Water street to the COMMERCIAL office, there was the best of order preserved, excepting at the intersection of Wylie and High streets, where a number of roughs had assembled and threw a brickbat into the head of the procession. The Mayor's force stationed to preserve order, and the procession passed along without further molestation.

FIFTH STREET, BELOW SMITHFIELD.

It would be impossible to enumerate all the houses that were decorated and illuminated in this part of the route. At least every three buildings out of four were splendidly decorated and illuminated with flags, banners and transparencies. We mention a few of the most conspicuous.

J. W. Pittock, covered all over with flags, transparencies &c., inside and outside. Putnam & House, Gray, Fossell & Reese, Dunseath & Co., Charter Oak Life Insurance Co., Reineman, Meyran & Siedel, H. B. Smithson & Co., Hoffman, Hoene & Co.; McCallum & Bros., Burnell's Museum, Gildenfenny, Duff's Commercial College, W. E. Schmertz & Co., M. McGinley, Dennison & Eckert, and White, Orr & Co., all made fine displays.

Oliver McClintock & Co., had a most magnificent display, a star of gas jets with U. S. Grant in bold relief. Two chandeliers of lanterns, flags, &c.

Bates & Bell, most artistically arranged windows, and fireworks burning, while the procession was passing; Krebs & Brother; Bovard, Rose & Co., F. H. Eaton, J. D. Bernd, corner of Fifth and Market; Cree Brothers, Ch. C. Algeo, F. A. Robinson, Barker & Hazelstin, and J. M. Roberts. Each made an elegant display.

LIBERTY STREET.

Three out of every four houses on this street were illuminated or decorated. We mention only a few of the most prominent: Hare's Hotel, J. Knox, Spratt, Jones & Co.; Florence House, B. Wolf, Jr., & Co.; Christian Hess, A. Garrison & Co., Bissell & Co., John Hays, Voight, Mahood & Co.; McMasters & Osbourne, Chas. Koethen, W. B. Hays & Son, L. Chesnut & Co., Crescent Steel Works, Lewis & McClure, Rush House, Boutto's Excelsior Omnibus Bag. Express.

PENN STREET.

Our reporters inform us that almost every house on the route in the Ninth ward was illuminated and decorated. This was especially the case with our German citizens. Many of their mottos were striking and appropriate, and we regret that our space will not permit us to mention them in detail.

The Ninth ward flagstaff presented a canopy in red, white and blue, gorgeously festooned with flags and flowers.

Penn street, from Wayne to St. Clair, was one continued scene of flags, banners and transparencies. Nearly every house was illuminated, some of them most brilliantly and gorgeously decorated.

ST. CLAIR STREET.

The principal decorations on this street were: Rankin's Drug Store, which was one of the finest we saw, window elegantly festooned, with Washington, the Father of our Country; Lincoln, the Saviour of our Country, and Grant will fight it out on this line, represented.

Other notable displays were: The Howe Sewing Machine Company; J. & H. Phillips, Hain & Co.; E. McGraw & Co.; J. C. Pitcairn; W. Rucheisen; Henry G. Hale; Burns & Caughey; Batbs, photographer. The whole of this street was illuminated with two solitary exceptions, one of which was the headquarters of the Fourth Ward Democratic Club, which looked gloomy enough, with one man sitting at the window, who seemed to be weeping, probably over the news from Maine.

MARKET STREET, BETWEEN LIBERTY AND FIFTH.

Nearly every house on this street was decorated and illuminated. Among those most notable we mention Yeager & Co., Silverman & Bro., J. R. Hughes & Bro., D. H. Fralich & Son, R. H. Palmer, J. G. Laur & Bro., A. Lipman & Co.

THE SIDE STREETS.

Highly creditable displays were made on Wood, Market, Diamond square, Diamond street, and other streets not on the route of procession, but it is impossible for us to enumerate them.

FEDERAL STREET, ALLEGHENY.

Federal street was never before, within the memory of "the oldest inhabitant" the scene of so much enthusiasm as last evening. From a very early hour until midnight the sidewalks were so thronged with people that it was almost impossible to get through them. Standing at the St. Clair Street Bridge and looking up the street, the scene was a most brilliant one. With the exception of about half a dozen dark, gloomy looking buildings, all the houses were beautifully and tastefully illuminated. If the illumination can be taken as an index of the loyalty of Federal street, as it certainly may, then we have no fear for Grant in that quarter. Starting at the St. Clair Street Bridge we passed up the whole length of the street, noting carefully all the houses that were illuminated. The decorations consisted principally of flags and Chinese lanterns. The following are the names of the firms and private residences that were illuminated: A. C. Jackson, "The Columbia Exchange," R. W. Jenkins, Mrs. Renter, "The Grant Home," Doctor Speer, J. D. White, Wm. Tate, from whose windows hung a beautiful large flag.

John T. Sample, George Schleirlein, John Herbert, Wm. Taylor, Mrs. Stoddard, Edward Smith, Sarvor & Brown, W. G. Wright displayed a beautiful large flag.

Dr. Herron, Wm. Sedden, Geo. W. Hubley, H. A. Kennedy, Mr. Kennedy, and Mr. Matthews, photographer, had a rope stretched across the street, upon which were suspended three magnificent flags with a beautifully and gracefully formed wreath of small flags; Mercer & Robinson, McClintock's shoe store, Thomas McFadden, Jr.; Mrs. Arnold. This lady had her building very nicely adorned with a great number of small flags and Chinese lanterns. J. J. East. John Mitsch. The First National Bank was ornamented with the finest flag we saw on the line of the street. It hung from the fine eagle statue on the top of the building. J. M. Carr, M. Spratt, McClinton & Hoag, George W. Campbell, Shirts & Corbets.

We now turned our face towards the river again, and started down the right hand side of the street. Park's drug store, on the corner of Federal street and Northern avenue, was very finely illuminated. The Farmer's Hotel was adorned by a beautiful large flag. James McDonald's store was well decorated. White's drug store had several beautiful flags hanging on its front. Mr. J. K. Brown, Lawson, Forrest, the "Old St. Lawrence," Glendennig, Gibson & Son, Farley, W. Mahler, Stephenson & Co. The Diamond presented a fine appearance, all the houses being lit up. The Mayor's office was very prettily illuminated; Heckel & Bro.; A. Danner had probably the nicest decorations on his building that were to be seen in that part of the city; Myers & Co., Lutmeyer & Co.; Ossman, McClellan & Co. displayed two very pretty flags; H. P. Schwartz had his drug store very brilliantly illuminated; Pratt & Binney, Chantler Goldman, Ressless, A. Hartung & Co.; F. H. Klages—this gentleman had decorated his building with great care, and it was the subject of general admiration; Park & Brill, J. Washington & Co., Hoffman & Rollshouse, H. C. Miller, Bailiff & Brown, Elliott & Lyons displayed a beautiful large flag, but it is due to the firm to say that it was only done on account of the loyalty of the senior member of the firm; Owens & Harber, G. W. Pinsy had his house well illuminated; Glogger's art gallery.

We next come to the block of buildings just below Rebecca street, in which there was not a darkened window. Dr. Thorn had his house most gracefully decorated with Chinese lanterns and innumerable small flags. Mr. McFadden displayed from his window the largest flag we saw on Federal street. Dr. Howard and Rev. Scovel both had finely decorated their buildings. From this block of buildings there was kept up a continual exhibition of most beautiful fireworks throughout the entire evening. Gen. Robinson's house was very nicely adorned with lanterns. From the porch of this fine mansion were displayed some beautiful fireworks. Rockets were sent up throughout the entire evening from different parts of the street, which, combined with the illuminated buildings, caused the street to look like a river of fire and light.

About nine o'clock the head of the procession appeared on the St. Clair street bridge and was greeted with deafening cheers by the patient thronging masses. For an hour and a quarter we stood before the great procession had all passed by. Long before the latter part of the procession had crossed the bridge, the first part had disbanded on Ohio street and were coming down Federal street on their way home. This, with the others marching up, gave a most brilliant appearance to the street. It was nothing other than a sea of light. Altogether the scenes, enthusiasm and universal brilliancy were such that they will never be forgotten by those who witnessed them.

THE INDIANS.

Attack on a Federal Camp—Colonel Forsythe Mortally Wounded—Other Casualties—Relief Sent.

FORT WALLACE, KANSAS, September 23.—Two scouts from Colonel Forsythe's command, who have been scouting the country toward the headwaters of the Republican, arrived here last night. They left Forsyth's camp on Dry Fork of the Republican, thirty-five miles from the mouth, and ninety miles north of here, four nights ago, and report that on the morning of the 17th, the Indians tried to run off a portion of their stock, and a half hour later three or four hundred appeared on the bluffs, two miles off, and made a dash for the camp. Colonel Forsythe, having only fifty men, crossed them to a small island, and the Indians commenced firing on him, which they kept up steadily and fast until eleven o'clock; after which only scattering shots until three o'clock, when they again opened a steady fire by an increased force, their number being estimated then at seven hundred. The fight was kept up in this manner until sundown, when the Indians made a desperate charge to take the camp, but were unsuccessful. They, however, kept up the fight until eleven o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at camp, seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Col. Forsythe, left leg broken by a ball and shot through the right thigh; Lieut. Beecher, shot in several places, supposed to be dying, as his back was broken, and he begged the men to kill him; Dr. Moore, shot in the head while dressing Col. Forsythe's wounds; two men killed and twenty wounded. All the stock of the command were killed, and the men were living on horse flesh. The scouts had only one and a half pounds to last them into Fort Wallace. The party had sixty-five rounds of ammunition left, and were fortifying. The scouts could only travel at night, on account of danger, Indians being seen every day.

On learning Col. Forsythe's condition, Col. Bankhead, commanding this post, sent out one hundred men with provisions, ammunitions, etc., to his relief; also scouts to Col. Carpenter, who was supposed to be about forty-five miles west of here with his company, to proceed to Col. Forsythe's assistance.

A scout came in at ten o'clock this morning and reported Carpenter far on his way. Gen. Bradley, from Fort Sedgwick, on his way to the forks of the Republican, was supposed to be in that vicinity with two companies of cavalry and three of infantry, and it was confidently expected by Gen. Sheridan that they would come up in time to the party, as they were in his route.

LATER, 8 P. M.—General Nechols has just arrived from Fort Reynolds, and reports Lieutenant Beecher dead, Dr. Moore mortally wounded, and dying, and Colonel Forsythe nearly as bad, all lying there with the Indians all around them, eating their horse flesh, waiting patiently for relief. Colonels Bankhead and Carpenter will reach them to-night.

Deafness, Blindness, Catarrh.

And all affections of the Throat, Lungs, Heart, Stomach, Liver and Nervous System, treated successfully at Dr. Aborn's Medical and Surgical institute, No. 134 Smithfield street. tf

THE GREAT DEMONSTRATION LAST NIGHT.

To the large part of our city's population who either participated in, or witnessed, the Republican torchlight procession last night, we need not say it was in every respect a grand affair, excelling anything of the kind ever seen here. From fifteen to twenty thousand persons marched in the procession, carrying not less than eight thousand torches and banners without number, while probably not less than fifty thousand citizens in the streets witnessed the demonstration. No description could do it even the faintest justice. [illegible]

DEMOCRATIC TAXATION.

How Equal Taxation Would Work.

Who Pay Taxes Now and Who Would Pay them Under the Democratic Plan.

[Extract from the speech of Hon. T. J. Bigham, at the Wigwam, Twelfth ward, on last Friday evening.]

The Democratic scheme at New York enunciate a new system of taxation in the fourth section of their platform: "Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real "value, including Government bonds and other "public securities." On this theory no person, no property is to escape. The necessaries of life are to be taxed as high as luxuries—bread as high as whisky, meat as high as tobacco, cotton as high as silk. Let us see first how this operates as to the persons to be taxed.

They are of course finding fault with the taxation of the Republican Congress. The general government only taxes large incomes, over one thousand dollars per annum. They demand that no one shall escape. Here are the official figures to show how this Democratic taxation is to operate. The first column shows the number paying income tax to the United States. The second the number paying county and local taxes, in each of the four counties:

County.	U. S. Income.	County and Local Tax.
Allegheny	[illegible]	30,954
Armstrong	196	8,556
Butler	[illegible]	8,547
Clarion	40	5,586

The resident taxables for 1868 in the entire State are about [illegible], of whom not over 50,000 pay an income tax to the United States. I was speaking last night in Robinson, one of the largest rural townships in this county. I asked the Deputy Collector how many paid United States income tax in that township, containing over 400 taxables. He replied three. Taking the State at large about one in sixteen pay income tax to the United States. In the rural districts not one in a hundred pay this tax. But when the Democracy come in power, the other ninety-nine are also to be taxed. They are to be taxed, too, not on their present assessed value, but upon the "real value" of all their property.

Allegheny county is taxed at present on her assessed value of [illegible]. Then she is to be assessed on the real value of all her property, say one hundred and fifty millions. The State assessment is under [illegible]. Then, however, it is to pay taxes on the real value of all its property. This is certainly twenty-five hundred millions, or equal to the entire national debt.

The Democracy, it is true, never taxed on such a basis when in power. But now their new platform commits them to piling up taxation mountain high. Another remarkable fact is that this cry for equal taxation comes from those who are now entirely exempt. Of the fifty thousand in the State who now pay this income tax, not over one-tenth of them will vote for Seymour and Blair.

Another point in the platform is that Government bonds are to be taxed. As I hold none, like Barkis, "I am willing." But then, the present bonds by the contract were to be exempted from taxation, except on the income of the holders. In that form they are now taxed just as houses, lands, manufacturing establishments, merchandise, &c. When new bonds are to be issued, it is a fair question to remove the right to tax them, and pay a higher rate of interest, or to exempt them and get the loan taken at a lower rate. Pennsylvania formerly taxed her bonds less than one-third of one per cent., and although her present loans are exempted, she pays six per cent. of interest. Massachusetts has never taxed her own loans, and to-day she pays only four per cent. interest on her State debt. Great Britain formerly taxed her own bonds, but now she only taxes them as ours are upon the income of the holders. The European Governments that formerly taxed their loans have all abandoned it, because they found they could not have their loans taken at less than two per cent. higher of annual interest, while the amount of the tax for loans would not reach one-half of one per cent.

We intend to leave this matter to Congress and General Grant to manage. We want them to get this immense national debt, piled up on us by the rebels and Copperheads, at the lowest possible rate of annual taxation. The loyal Congress has already devised a system of taxation and funding of this debt that commands the admiration of the world. Whatever defects the future may develop will be cured from time to time. Loyal men saved this Government when its life was at stake. Rebels in arms and sympathizing Copperheads tried to overturn and destroy it. I am suspicious of all their plans of managing this enormous debt of their own creation. Like the Trojan sage, I fear those Greeks bearing golden gifts. Let them take back seats in the sanctuary; at the end of this generation they may have purged themselves from their crimes, and it will then be time enough to listen to their counsels. The rebel generals, the Copperhead Vallandighams and Seymours are a rebellious and stiff necked generation, and should, like the Israelites of old, never be permitted to pass over Jordan and enter the promised land.

THE RAILROAD AND EXPRESS CONVENTION.

Rates of Freight Recommended.

[From the Memphis Appeal, September 18.]

A meeting of the representatives of the Southern and Eastern railroads interested in the transportation of cotton to the seaboard, met at the Overton House yesterday.

The following roads were represented: Nashville and Chattanooga, Nashville and North-Western, in connection with Charleston, S. C., and steamship line from that point—represented by Chas. W. Anderson, General Freight Agent.

Memphis and Louisville and Louisville and Nashville—F. S. Van Alstyne, General Freight Agent.

Jeffersonville Railroad—Thos. Carse, General Freight Agent.

Memphis and Charleston—J. C. Lopez, General Freight Agent.

Little Miami, and Columbus and Xenia, and Dayton and Western—E. F. Fuller, General Freight Agent.

Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton, Dayton and Michigan, Cincinnati, Richmond and Chicago, and Atlantic and Great Western—Lafayette Devenny, General Freight Agent.

Louisville and Cincinnati Mail Boat Company—W. McCoy, General Freight Agent.

Memphis and St. Louis Packet Company and Ohio and Mississippi Railroad—Flem Calvert, General Freight Agent.

Pennsylvania Railroad—Wm. M. Hersh.

Memphis and Ohio Railroad—A. A. Paton, General Freight Agent.

Major Charles W. Anderson was elected Chairman, and Lafayette Devenny, Esq., Secretary.

Letters and telegrams were read from the Erie, Baltimore and Ohio, Evansville, and Illinois Central Railroads, asking the establishment of fair remunerative rates, and pledging themselves to the maintenance of any rates adopted by the Convention.

After an interchange of opinion on the subject, Messrs. Lopez, Carse, Van Alstine, Fuller, Devenny and Hersh were appointed a committee to report a schedule of rates for the transportation of cotton from Memphis, Nashville, Hickman, Columbus, Cairo, St. Louis, Louisville, Evansville and Cincinnati to the Eastern cities, and a plan for their maintenance.

The committee retired and the Convention adjourned to meet this morning at ten o'clock.

It is understood the Committee will recommend the following rates on cotton from Memphis:

	Per 100 lbs.
To New York, uncompressed, all rail	75
" " " compressed, all rail	1 40
" " " uncompressed, rail & water	1 65
" " " compressed, rail and water	1 30

being ten cents ℔ 100 lbs less than the prices charged last season.

A harmonious feeling prevails among the representatives present, and all seem anxious to procure the adoption of fair prices for the railroads, and which will not be burthensome on our merchants, and that will be maintained with integrity.

Those "Gains" in Maine.

Cory O'Lanus has heard all about those "Immense rebel gains in Maine." He has received the following letter:

[illegible], Maine,—To C. O'Lanus, Esq.: The election in the town has gone just as we expected. The Republicans have carried the town by an increased majority, but the heaviest proportionate gain has been on the Democratic side, as you will see by the figures:

	1867.	1868.		1867.	1868.
Repub. vote	50	60	Dem. vote	1	2
			Totals	51	62

The Democratic gain is one hundred per cent., while the Republican gain is only twenty per cent. At this rate the redemption of Maine is only a question of time.

Yours, Hugh B. Blode.

"Something That Chinks."

Sunset Cox is a star in the Democratic firmament of scarcely less magnitude than Seymour, and he thus discourses of the financial issue:

"But it (the debt) should be paid. It should be paid by an extension over a fair period of time, "according to the letter of the laws under which it was contracted." I would, as the Democratic platform says, pay it in 'lawful money.' Lawful money, to Democratic memory, means something that chinks; and as that part of the debt about which there is much useless logomachy in Congress, and such lucid equivocation in both platforms is not likely to mature for some time, I would not anticipate—certainly for its payment as for other reasons. I would never issue another dollar of irredeemable, debauching, elastic, greenback currency."

"Certain Defeat."

[From the New York Sun.]

From the elections which have taken place, the prospect is that the Republicans will sweep the country like a whirlwind. This result is to be attributed to the issue which the Democratic National Convention decided "to make in the election." That is the issue of the war. It is scarcely anything else than a continuation at the ballot box of the struggle already fought out on the field of battle between Secession and Unionism. On this issue Lee, and Forrest, and Wade Hampton are doomed in this contest, as they were doomed in the war, to certain defeat.

A New York correspondent informs us that the Grecian bend continues to elicit humorous remarks wherever seen, and it is now considered a mark of pluck for a young lady to appear in Broadway with one. Last week an artist, sojourning at the leading hotel in Saratoga, amused himself with making pencil sketches of the ladies who sported the "choke stoop," as John G. Saxe terms it, and selling them for a half dollar apiece. They occasioned so much laughter and provoked such angry complaints from the victims that the landlord finally requested the artist to desist from his [illegible].

The inequities of our tax system, which heaps burdens upon the poor and leaves the rich to go free, were exemplified in the case of the late Mr. Edwin A. Stevens. Being a millionaire and a bloated bondholder, he was of Government stamps, [illegible] will admitted to probate.—Tribune.

COE'S DYSPEPSIA CURE

"CONSIDERABLE MERIT."

[From O. O. Thwing, M. D., New Philadelphia, O.]

New Philadelphia, Ohio, December 21, 1864.

Mr. Clark: I am acquainted with several persons who have used Coe's Dyspepsia Cure, and from their testimony I am convinced that the medicine possesses considerable merit. I should be glad to recommend it to my patients who may need such a medicine, and also to use, when occasion may require, in my own practice; but our code of ethics, to which I freely subscribed, disallows me to use a medicine the ingredients of which I am unacquainted with. Most manufacturers of proprietary medicines do not hesitate to furnish their formulas to physicians, and if you are one of those, please send me your formula, and it is quite likely that it will lead to the sale of a few bottles, to say the least. I would suggest that it would be advisable to make depositories of the medicine in more places than you have in this State. There are many flourishing towns, where your medicine cannot yet be found, and where, I have no doubt, from what I know of the medicine, they would have a large sale. If you do not wish to have your complete formula known, please state the ingredients composing it.

O. O. THWING, M. D.

"VALUABLE THING."

[From James M. Clark, Baldwinsville, N. Y.]

Gents: Allow me to say that, although, as a general thing, I have a pretty poor opinion of patent medicine, still I am disposed to regard your "Coe's Dyspepsia Remedy" as a valuable thing. From boyhood I have been troubled with the most terrible turns of sick headache that ever fell to the lot of suffering humanity, and, although I have swallowed almost every known specific for this disease, none has ever seemed to permanently benefit me but this "Coe's Dyspepsia Cure." I have not yet taken quite a bottle, and since I have commenced its use I have not had even a symptom of the headache. This is two months since. Previous to that I usually had it at least once a week, sometimes twice.

Respectfully, JAMES M. CLARK.

"THE BEST ARTICLE."

[From T. J. Rand, Muskegon, Mich.]

Muskegon, Mich., May 27, 1867.

Messrs. C. G. Clark & Co.:

Having used Coe's Dyspepsia Cure, I can recommend it to all who are troubled with that complaint. It cured me after having suffered for ten years, and tried many other remedies without receiving any relief. I believe it to be the best article before the people for the cure of Dyspepsia.

Yours, &c., T. J. RAND, Banker, Muskegon, Mich.

"A PERFECT CURE."

[From J. H. Moulton, Battle Creek, Mich.]

Battle Creek, May 5, 1868.

Messrs. Andrews & Grandine, Druggists:

In reply to your inquiry as to results in using the bottle of Coe's Dyspepsia Cure we purchased from you, we take the first opportunity to state that having used it for Indigestion, I can certify that in my case it has proved itself a perfect cure.

I most cheerfully and earnestly recommend it to every one who has suffered from the ravages and horrors of this terrible disease. Yours truly

JOHN F. MOULTON.

"INSTANT RELIEF."

[From J. W. Niel, M. D., Delaware, Ohio.]

Messrs. Connell & Co., Druggists:

In reply to your inquiry as to results in using the bottle of Coe's Dyspepsia Cure we purchased from you, we take the first opportunity to state that, for a young man, I am an old Dyspeptic, and have tried almost everything in the line of prescriptions and formulas, from physicians and books, and never found anything to equal Coe's Dyspepsia Cure. The first dose I took of the Cure, I felt almost instant relief, and went about my business in a happier mood than I had for years before. After finishing one bottle, I arrived at the happy conclusion that I was cured, and had it not been for my own imprudence in eating, I doubt whether the disease would ever have returned. I most cheerfully and earnestly recommend it to every one who has suffered from the ravages and horrors of this terrible disease. Yours, truly,

J. W. NIEL, M. D.

"VERY MODEST."

[From H. M. T. Smith, Dunkirk, N. Y.]

Dunkirk, N. Y., May 1, 1868.

Gents—I inclose your circular. I know of two parties—wives of prominent citizens in this place—who have been greatly benefitted, if not cured, by the use of your Dyspeptic Cure, but they will not consent to the public use of their names. And thus the matter rests, with a steadily increasing sale.

Yours, respectfully, H. M. T. SMITH.

"REPUTATION GAINING."

[From Rev. Allen Crowell, Brookville, Pa.]

Luthersburg, Pa., May 2, 1867.

Mr. Joseph Fleming:

Sir—"Coe's Dyspepsia Cure" is gaining a reputation amongst our people. The medicine already used is having the desired effect. A friend wishes me to get a bottle for him, for which I send you $1. Send to my address, as soon as possible.

GET A GOOD SAW.

And Your Mill will do Good Work

Our Saws are Oil Tempered, Patent Ground, made to Run well.

You will find each Saw of one Temper and no Hard and Soft Spots in the same Saw.

We accomplish this by our Patent Tempering Process, and you can not get this from any other Saw Maker, as we own the Patents for the United States.

We do not claim to make a cheaper Saw than any one else, but one that will run at the word go, and will give no trouble, and will keep round longer; because being uniform with Temper, it will not wear on one side faster than the other.

We invite correspondence, or an interview with the practical man of your firm.

DR. SARGENT'S BACKACHE PILLS

Have been in use 35 years, and are daily performing wonderful cures. In many instances where patients were unable to walk upright or to rise without assistance, they have been relieved by a single dose.

DR. SARGENT'S BACKACHE PILLS

Cure all Diseases of the Urinary Organs, the symptoms of which are Weakness and Pain in the Back and Loins, Pains in the Joints, difficulty in Voiding the Urine, General Debility, etc., etc.

THE KIDNEYS, BLADDER, &c.,

Are those Organs through which most of the waste or worn out particles of the body passes; these worn out and dead particles are poisonous, consequently when these organs are diseased, the whole system becomes deranged and if not relieved at once the result may be fatal.

This much esteemed and most efficient Medicine is the only Diuretic that is put up in the shape of Pills, and is much more easily taken than the ordinary Diuretic draughts—the Pills being sugar-coated.

We are Not Cast Iron.

Cast iron undergoes marked changes under the alternate action of heat and cold, and the human body is not cast iron. On the contrary, it is a combination of delicate tissues and fibres, which are exquisitely sensitive to atmospheric changes, and, unless protected against sudden and violent variations of temperature by wise precautions, are sure to be disastrously affected by them.

At this season the difference between the temperature of night and day is greater than at any other period of the year, and the stomach, the liver, the bowels and the nervous system are apt to receive violent shocks from these changes, resulting in indigestion, bilious attacks, debility, low nervous fever, fever and ague, remittent fever, &c. Sustain and reinforce these organs, therefore, with the purest and most potent of all vegetable tonics and alteratives, viz: HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. The effect of this matchless invigorant is to brace up the whole vital organization, and regulate its action. Useful at all seasons as a means of promoting perfect digestion, an even and natural flow of bile, and a healthy condition of the bowels and the skin, it is especially necessary in the Fall when the complaints arising from checked perspiration are so common. It is found, by those who are in the habit of using this agreeable and unequalled tonic, that it so strengthens and fortifies the body as to render it proof against the morbid influences which infest the air during the prevalence of epidemics.
